Islands ♦ Vis ♦ Komiža
(Vis) ♦ Maslinica (Šolta)
♦ Marina Kaštela

MILNA

island of Brač

Once you got onboard and are all set to go, the closest point and the usual first stop for charterers is a small and cozy place of Milna on the island of Brač. First dinner whether on board or in some restaurant and afterwards sleepover for another day at sea.

RESTAURANTS:

Restaurant "NAVIGARE"

Restaurant "BAGO"

Restaurant "OLIFE"

An aerial photograph of Hvar island, Croatia. The top half shows a wide view of the island and the surrounding sea. The bottom half shows a closer view of the harbor, filled with numerous sailboats and yachts. The town of Hvar is visible on the left, with its characteristic red-tiled roofs and stone buildings. The water is a deep blue, and the sky is clear.

HVAR

island of Hvar

Proceed via Hvar, one of the most famous island in Croatia, the island with the most sunny days a year in Croatia. It would be a shame not to spend at least a day in the Pakleni island, a small islets not a mile away from Hvar. Perfect nature, crystal clear sea and the environment can make you feel speechless.
